Dear Mr. Greg Haberny,

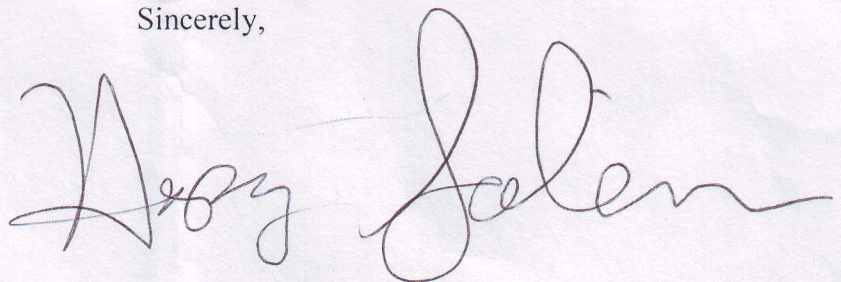

The Museum of Modern Art has received your proposal and we were disgusted and appalled by your installation bid titled: "Blow This Mother Fucker Up"

First and foremost, our roster of artists does not consist of a "cesspool of Euro-Trash and a talentless posse of post-opt-transsexuals" as you described in your statement.

Secondly, your plan to urinate on Monet's Poplars at Giverny, Sunrise; your suggestion to paint a "Hairy Beaver" between the legs of Lautrec's The Seated Clowness and your idea to add "a homosexual orgy" to Matisse's The Red Studio were found to be revolting.

Finally, we will not honor your suggested "Brown Bag an Intern Day" or the five hundred and thirty seven million dollar check you sent toward "hookers and booze" for the janitors. We have asked that you please NOT apply for any further projects for the Museum of Modern Art.

Sincerely,
